

Terms and Conditions of Participation

CTI Group Worldwide Services - J-1 Exchange Program

Line Spacing: 1.15

1. Program Purpose and Commitment

- Cultural Exchange: The Participant understands that the primary objective of the Intern/Trainee program is cultural exchange and the enhancement of professional skills through American work methodologies.
- Integrity of Information: The Participant guarantees that all information provided in the application is true and accurate. Providing false information may result in immediate dismissal from the program.
- Legal Compliance: The Participant must comply with all U.S. federal, state, and local laws. Any violation of the law may lead to immediate program termination.

2. Visa Administration and SEVIS

- J-1 Sponsorship: The Participant acknowledges that the sponsor's (CIEE/AAG/Greenheart) decisions are final regarding all aspects of visa sponsorship.
- Arrival Validation: The Participant must check in and validate their U.S. residential address in the required system (e.g., GO Account or Sponsor Portal) within 7-10 days of the DS-2019 start date.
- Mandatory Reporting: The Participant is required to respond to monthly monitoring (monthly check-ins) promptly. Failure to do so may jeopardize visa status.
- Period of Stay: Training cannot begin before the DS-2019 start date. The Participant must depart the U.S. within 30 days after the program ends (Grace Period).

3. Training Placement

- Host Commitment: The Participant commits to training at the approved Host Organization for the full duration of the program.
- Prohibition of Outside Employment: The Participant is strictly prohibited from seeking additional paid training or any side employment outside the approved Training Plan (DS-7002).
- Placement Changes: Changing the Host Organization is not permitted without prior written approval from the sponsor.

4. Health, Safety, and Insurance

- Insurance Coverage: The Participant must maintain medical insurance for the duration of their stay. Insurance generally covers emergencies and does not cover pre-existing conditions or pregnancy.

- Medical Fitness: The Participant declares no medical or psychological conditions that would prevent full participation. If pregnancy occurs, the Participant must report it and may be required to return home for safety.
- Transportation Safety: Participants using bicycles must wear helmets and reflective vests during dark hours and follow all local traffic laws.

5. Code of Conduct

- Professionalism and Inclusion: The Participant must exhibit conduct that reflects inclusion and respect for differences in race, religion, nationality, culture, sexual orientation, and gender identity.
- Zero Tolerance: The sponsor does not tolerate comments, jokes, or behaviors that demean or disrespect any individual or group.
- Communication: The Participant must maintain a valid email address, check for messages from the sponsor/CTI at least once a week, and respond within 24-48 hours when requested.

6. Consequences of Non-Compliance

- Program Termination: Violation of program rules, failure to check in, or conduct that brings the exchange program into disrepute may result in the termination of visa sponsorship.
- Return Costs: If the program is terminated due to a violation, the Participant must return to their home country immediately at their own expense with no refund of program fees.

By signing this document, the Participant confirms they have read, understood, and agreed to abide by all terms and conditions set forth by CTI Group Worldwide Services and the U.S. Sponsors.
